Starting Again

As most everyone knows by now, The Closet has a New Home !! I am Very excited to be a part of the Mt. Clemens High School family. The Closet has been welcomed with "Open Arms" here and I could not be happier!! It is heart warming to feel wanted and although this has been a long process, The Closet will continue..

The Closet will run a little different as I am respecting the fact that this is an active school. From now on, you can call to make an appointment to come to The Closet. With an appointment, you will also receive a personal consultant. Your clothing items will still be limited to 10, not counting shoes, house items, books, etc...

I am so excited to see everyone again and meeting new clients as well !!

What is The Closet ?

For those who do not know what The Closet is...Let me introduce myself...

My name is Donna and this is my 7th year running The Closet. I have been collecting clothing that has been washed, ironed and displayed on racks. This clothing is at "no charge" in order to help out in difficult times. Yep, it's that easy...

The Closet has been featured on "The Heart of Detroit" with Mr. Mitch Albom and I could not be prouder !!

At this time I am not a 501c3. If you choose to "gift" The Closet with clothing, books, household items or anything other than mattress's and pillows, unfortunately, I cannot give you a tax right off.

The Closet is located on Face Book at www.facebook.com/
